Instructions

Consumers or dealers of communications services or transactions subject to sales tax, insurers providing insurance coverage, vendors providing address/jurisdiction databases, and other substantially affected parties may submit an objection to the jurisdiction or county assigned to an address in the Department of Revenue's Address/Jurisdiction Database. Department of Revenue employees should submit SUNTAX-related address/jurisdiction corrections at floridarevenue.com/taxes/pointmatch.

NOTE: To submit updates or corrections to the Department's Address/Jurisdiction Database, use Form DR-700022 if you are a local taxing jurisdiction or county. If you are a special fire control district, use Form DR-350907.

The fastest and easiest way to submit your objections is online at floridarevenue.com/taxes/pointmatch. A request for correction may be for a single address or may include multiple address corrections. If this form is being used to submit an objection for a Tourist Development Tax (TDT), use Reason 4.

For jurisdictions, you may include all addresses moving from City A to City B in one submission. If you also have addresses moving from City A to City C, a separate submission is required.

For counties, you may include all addresses moving from County A to County B in one submission. If you also have addresses moving from County A to County C, a separate submission is required.

You must submit evidence showing that the affected addresses are located within the jurisdiction or county that you indicated.

NOTE: Requests submitted without evidence to support the address/jurisdiction objection will not be considered.

Submit your completed objection and all supporting evidence online at floridarevenue.com/taxes/pointmatch or by email, fax, or mail to the Florida Department of Revenue's Local Government Unit at:

- Email: local-govt-unit@floridarevenue.com
- Fax: 850-921-4711
- Mail: Florida Department of Revenue
  Local Government Unit
  PO Box 5885
  Tallahassee, FL 32314-5885

If you complete this form online, do not mail a copy.

Upon receipt of your submission, the Department will contact the affected local jurisdictions or counties. For more information, call the Local Government Unit at 850-717-6630 or send an email to local-govt-unit@floridarevenue.com.
