Effective Date: October 1, 2006

Statute Reference: ss. 538.03, F.S.

Chapter Law: s. 1, 2006-201 (SB 694)

Amends the definition of "secondhand dealer." Removes pawnbrokers from being included as secondhand dealers.

Amends the definition of "secondhand goods" and specifies which items are not secondhand goods.

Exempts the following persons, businesses, or entities from the requirements imposed on secondhand dealers:

Businesses that contract with other persons or entities to offer secondhand goods for sale, purchase, consignment, or trade via the Internet under specified conditions;

Any person offering his or her own personal property for sale, purchase, consignment, or trade via the Internet who is not required to have a local occupational or business license for this purpose;

A business whose primary business is the sale, rental, or trade of motion picture videos or video games under specified conditions.

Amends the definition of "precious metals." Certain coins and certain gold, silver, or platinum bullion are no longer excluded from the definition of precious metals.
