RE: Florida Department of Revenue Proposed Rules

Dear Ms. Jackson:

At their September 18, 2023, public meeting, the Governor and Cabinet approved the publication of the Notice of Proposed Rulemaking and subsequent adoption and certification of the Department of Revenue's proposed child support rules if the substance of the proposed rules remain unchanged upon reaching the date for final adoption. The proposed rules included:

Rule 12E-1.023, F.A.C. – Suspension of Driver License; Suspension of Motor Vehicle Registration
Rule 12E-1.036, F.A.C. – Administrative Establishment of Paternity and Support Obligations

A Notice of Proposed Rule for these rules was published in the Florida Administrative Register (F.A.R.) on September 20, 2023 (Vol. 49, No. 183, PP. 3505-3507).

The Department reviewed the proposed rules listed above and determined that the proposed rules likely will not have an adverse impact on small business, small counties, or small cities, and are not likely to have an increased regulatory cost in excess of $200,000 within 1 year. No Statement of Estimated Regulatory Cost is required for the proposed rules. The rules do not require ratification by the Legislature pursuant to Section 120.541(3), F.S.

The Department requests that the Committee file its certification with the Bureau of Administrative Code on October 27, 2023. The Department would like to file the proposed rules for final adoption with the Department of State on October 27, 2023, for an effective date of November 16, 2023.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,
