INSTRUCTIONS

Assessment Reduction Requirements

Parent or Grandparent Living Quarters. Your county may offer a reduction to the assessed value of your homestead property as a result of construction or reconstruction on your property for the purpose of providing living quarters for one or more natural or adoptive parents or grandparents over the age of 62 (see s. 193.703, F.S.).

Penalties

The property appraiser has a duty to put a tax lien on your property if you received an exemption during the past 10 years that you were not entitled to receive. The property appraiser will notify you that taxes with penalties and interest are due. You will have 30 days to pay before a lien is recorded. If this was not an error by the property appraiser, you will be subject to a penalty of 50 percent of the unpaid taxes and 15 percent interest each year (see ss. 196.011(10), 193.703(7), and 196.161(3), F.S.).

If you improperly receive a homestead exemption as a result of the property appraiser's clerical mistake or omission, you will not be assessed penalties or interest.

For tax years beginning in 2025, if you improperly receive an exemption as a result of the property appraiser's clerical mistake or omission, and you disclose the error to the property appraiser before you receive a notice of intent to record a lien, you will not be charged back taxes, penalties, or interest.

Contact your local property appraiser if you have questions about your assessment reduction.

File the signed application with the county property appraiser.
