Newly Constructed Multifamily Project Exemption

Complete this section if you are applying for an exemption from ad valorem tax on a newly constructed Multifamily Project substantially completed within the earlier of 5 years before this application or the first application for certification from Florida Housing Finance Corporation, that contains more than 70 units. On January 1 of the current year:
(See s. 196.1978(3), F.S., for requirements)

1.* Were the affordable housing units rented for an amount that does not exceed either the rent limit chart published by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development or 90 percent of fair market rent as determined by a rental market study, whichever is less? Yes No

Rent on multifamily units cannot exceed the amount specified by the most recent multifamily rental programs income and rent limit chart.

The rental market study must identify the fair market value rent of each unit for which a property owner seeks an exemption. (S. 196.1978(3)(m), F.S.)

2. How many of the units were occupied by tenants with an income greater than 80% but not more than 120% of the median annual adjusted gross income for households within the metropolitan statistical area or the county in which the person or family resides?

Qualified property receives an ad valorem property tax of 75% of the assessed value.

3. How many of the units were occupied by tenants with an income that does not exceed 80% of the median annual adjusted gross income for households within the metropolitan statistical area or the county in which the person or family resides?

Qualified property is exempt from ad valorem property taxes.

4. How many of the units were vacant but, in the previous year were occupied by a tenant, qualified for the exemption, otherwise qualify, and the use of the units is restricted to providing affordable housing, and reasonable effort is being made to lease the units to eligible persons or families.

5. Attach a certification notice determined by the Florida Housing Finance Corporation.

Item #1: Submit copies of either:

- Most recent multifamily rental programs income and rent limit chart posted by the Corporation and derived from the Multifamily Tax Subsidy Projects Income Limits Published by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development

Or,

- A rental market study of the fair market value rent as determined by a rental market study conducted by an independent, certified General appraiser. The appraiser must follow standards of professional practice and use comparable property within the same geographic area and of the same type as the property for which the exemption is sought.
